AIMS AND SCOPE

Journal of Science and Technology in Civil Engineering (JSTCE) is a specialized scientific journal in the field of construction, which has quarterly been published in English under p-ISSN 1859-2996 and e-ISSN 2734-9268 by Hanoi University of Civil Engineering (HUCE). The scope of the journal includes the following areas: building and industrial engineering; bridge and road engineering; coastal, offshore and hydraulic engineering; materials; mechanical engineering; architecture and planning; economics and management; environmental engineering; project management and computer science. JSTCE provides a forum for announcing and introducing new researches and application results within the Journal scope which have not been previously published or under review elsewhere. The Journal has been recognized as a prestigious national journal by National Science and Technology Development (NAFOSTED) since 2019 and included in the ASEAN Citation Index (ACI) system since 2020.
